

LIVE WHERE YOU BELONG

HOUSING AT UC BERKELEY

CONNECT GROW THRIVE

DISCOVER YOUR HOME AT BERKELEY

In UC Berkeley housing, you'll discover the benefits of sharing space with equally passionate and enthusiastic Golden Bears.

YOUR BEST START

Our residence hall and apartment communities provide a welcoming home where scholars create memories, share ideas, and grow alongside friends. With housing options for every need, there are many reasons why living in the residence halls is the most popular housing choice for newly-admitted students.

ADVANTAGES OF LIVING ON CAMPUS

Living on campus is an energizing experience that extends beyond the walls of any building and leads to greater academic success. In typical years, 96 percent of freshmen and over a quarter of transfer students have chosen university housing and the benefits that come with it.

As you transition to life at college, you can make the most of Berkeley's world-class education by choosing to live on campus and alongside your peers. You'll experience:

- > Vegan, kosher, halal, gluten-free, and allergen-safe choices

COMMUNITY CONNECTION STARTS IN THE HEART OF BERKELEY

Living on campus provides a wonderful residential experience that connects you with the student community, helps you navigate life at Berkeley, and supports you as you find where you belong.

On-site activities create opportunities to make lifelong friends and explore new experiences. From movie nights to open mics, from late-night chats with your resident assistant to fireside chats with faculty in residence, you'll find community right at your doorstep.

INCLUSIVE LIVING AT UC BERKELEY

Welcoming and inclusive spaces are part of campus housing.

Theme Programs

themeprograms.berkeley.edu

These are living-learning communities where students sharing a scholarly interest live together and participate in programs specially designed around the community theme.

The eight Theme Programs are:

- > African American (AATP)
- > Bloom: Asian American (AACP)
- > Casa Magdalena Mora (CASA)
- > Global Environment (GETH)
- > Native American (NATP)
- > South Asian, Southwest Asian, and North African (SSWANA) pilot community
- > UNITY (LGBTQIA+)
- > WISE: Empowering Womxn in STEAM*

Each program is a partnership between Residential Life and an academic department, and includes an academic seminar. Theme Programs have a public service and community development focus and many are founded on concepts of identity exploration and equity.

Students can apply for Theme Programs in the housing application. There are no additional fees for Theme Program housing.

WISE welcomes all who experience life through the lens of womxn in body, spirit, identity—past, present, future, and fluid.*

Transfer Living and Learning Community

transfers.berkeley.edu

A community for motivated transfer students of all backgrounds, majors, and experiences ready to cultivate strong relationships with their peers.

The program offers diversity of perspective for students to learn from each other and grow together. Contact the Transfer Student Center for details.

Substance-Free Environment

housing.berkeley.edu/unit1

Freeborn Hall (in Unit 1) is designated as a substance-free environment. Residents actively agree to keep the community free of alcohol as well as recreational and illegal drugs. The hall hosts substance-free programs, events, and activities.

Accommodations and Identity-Based Needs

housing.berkeley.edu/accommodations

UC Berkeley works with students to accommodate and support disability, religious, cultural, or gender identity-based needs. Visit the website or note your needs in your housing application to receive information.

Bathroom Facilities for Every Need

From all-gender to single-gender bathrooms, we have housing designed to address almost every need. You can select between floor-wide or semi-private suite bathrooms and preference single- or all-gender floor/bathroom on the housing application.

EXPLORE CAMPUS HOUSING

RESIDENCE HALL OPTIONS

Residence halls frame the boundary of campus on the north, east, and south sides. Meal plans are included with residence hall contracts.

An independent living environment with efficient and modern design. Features four or five bedrooms with single-occupancy rooms.

N Wada

Apartment building with spacious bedrooms located in the Unit 2 residence hall. Most apartments feature two bedrooms with double- or triple-occupancy rooms.

 Location is an affiliated property assigned by the university. On-site management is overseen by public-private partners.*

ENSURE YOU RECEIVE A HOUSING OFFER

All newly-admitted students will receive a housing contract offer for their first year provided they:

- 1. Meet all housing application and university deadlines.
- 2. Are flexible about housing preferences.

HOUSING ESSENTIALS

Use your CalNet ID to apply for housing after you accept your offer of admission. Students may choose a Full Academic Year or Spring-only contract. Summer housing options are available through a separate application. Most residence halls close over Winter Break.

First-year students will usually be offered a contract for a triple room, the most common occupancy option. Housing is increasingly available for continuing students; in typical years, most who apply with flexible preferences receive an offer. Berkeley continues to actively expand campus housing, with several new buildings slated to open in coming years.
